Re: Ex Parte Presentation in MB Docket 04-61, In the Matter of Digital Output Protection Technology and Recording Method Certifications: High Bandwidth Digital Content Protection; MB Docket 04-62, In the Matter of Digital Output Protection Technology and Recording Method Certifications: Content Protection Recordable Media for Video Content; and MB Docket 04-64, In the Matter of Digital Output Protection Technology and Recording Method Certifications: Digital Transmission Content Protection.

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Monday, July 26, 2004, Ralph B. Everett and Sara W. Morris of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP, representing Philips Electronics North America Corporation ("Philips"); Bruce Joseph of Wiley, Rein & Fielding LLP, also representing Philips; and Michael Epstein of Philips; met with Commissioner Michael Copps, Legal Advisor Jordan Goldstein and Intern Maggie Sklar, to discuss the licensing terms associated with the above-referenced Broadcast Flag Certifications. The matters covered in the meeting track those contained in Philips' Oppositions to the above-referenced Broadcast Flag Certifications, as well as in Philips' May 28, 2004; July 2, 2004; and July 20, 2004 ex parte submissions in those dockets, courtesy copies of which were provided.

In accordance with Section 1.1206 of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206, one copy of this letter is being filed electronically. Please direct any questions concerning this matter to the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

Sara W. Morris
Government Affairs Policy Advisor
